About Office of International Affairs (Korean language Academy)

The Office of International Affairs operates various Korean language training courses to enhance international students' understanding and scholarship of general Hallyu culture and to help those students build their careers as experts in converging K-Culture disciplines. In order to strengthen the competencies of foreign students, the university has created an educational infrastructure that allows students to experience Hallyu culture in each K-Culture category, such as K-Pop, K-Beauty, and K-Food, through extracurricular programs.

With students from all over the world looking to Kimpo University for its Korean language program and degree programs, the university plans to open Korean language training courses for teachers from overseas educational institutions and personnel from overseas industries. Kimpo University, which specializes in K-Culture, is recognized for its excellence and global reach by foreign and domestic educational institutions and industries worldwide.
